UNITED STATES V. TAWANA LOLITA WELLS, 2:03CR00059

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT
December 10, 2015

By way of case history, Wells appeared before Your Honor for revocation proceedings on September 24, 2015. Wells was sentenced to time served followed by 12 months of supervised release. Wells was immediately released from custody and placed into drug testing, mental health treatment, and substance abuse treatment.

On October 5, 2015, Wells tested positive for Codeine and Morphine. Wells called the undersigned immediately after testing positive and advised that she had taken a prescription pain medication (Tylenol 3) that was prescribed to her aunt. Wells stated she was in severe pain due to a cyst on her ovaries. Wells was educated on the dangers of taking prescription medication that is not in her name and was verbally admonished for the positive test.

On October 27, 2015, Wells failed to report for drug testing. On October 28, 2015, the undersigned called Wells to inquire about the missed test. Wells advised that she had been ill with shingles on her eye and had forgotten to call in for testing. Wells reported to the office that day and was in noticeable pain from the shingles outbreak on her eyelid. Wells submitted to a test which was negative for all illicit substances.

Wells then began to rapidly decline. She missed two treatment appointments and another drug test. Wells was called into the office On December 2, 2015, to submit for a drug test. Wells arrived with a contemptuous attitude and was argumentative with the probation officer. Wells stated that probation was simply harassing her and preventing her from having a normal life.

Just three days after Wells presented in the probation office with a poor attitude she was arrested by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department for possessing a firearm. Wells was ultimately released from the Clark County Detention Center and instructed to report to the probation office on December 7, 2015, at 8 a.m. Wells never reported as instructed. Attempts were made to contact Wells via telephone and at her residence. All attempts were unsuccessful. The whereabouts of Wells are unknown. Wells has been placed in absconder status for a second time. Her conduct and her insolent attitude make it clear that Wells has no desire or intention to comply with the conditions of the Court or the instructions of the probation officer. For these reasons, a warrant is respectfully requested. It is further requested that Wells remain detained pending her final revocation proceedings.
